FRANKLIN BROTHERS

ASSASSIN LAID HIS PLANS WELL.

Believed the Man Preceding Him an Accomplice.

ANOTHER ARREST WILL FOLLOW.

Czolgosze Declares He Had No Confederates in the Crime.

THE SHOOTING AS SEEN BY A DETECTIVE

He Says the Man who Shielded the A. J. from His View—Vice President Roosevelt Is Closely Guarded.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Although Czolgosze refused to incriminate any one else in the plot to kill President McKinley, the police are of the opinion that another man is party to it. The man is the one who walked directly in front of Czolgosze and shielded him from the sight of the secret service men. The police have a good description of him and his arrest may occur at any moment. There is no doubt, according to the police, this man was an accomplice of Czolgosze. Czolgosze does not appear to be insane. Detective Sergeant John Geary, who stood a few feet from Czolgosze when he fired the shots and who caught President McKinley when he fell, was asked whether, in his opinion, Czolgosze was insane. "He may be," said the detective, "but from all I saw of him he is just an anarchist."

Czolgosze is not above the average height. His face is that of the typical German. He appears to be very nervous and starts suddenly when any one speaks to him. He proved to be very elusive in answering questions, however. The police worked over him until a late hour Friday night and they admitted very little progress had been made in bringing facts from him regarding his past history. He shows no sign of remorse, though is to a degree nervous.

STORY OF A DETECTIVE.

Ireland Believes the Assassin Had a Confederate in His Crime.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Secret Service Detective Ireland said: "It had been my custom to stand back of the president and just to his left so I could see the right hand of every person approaching, but yesterday I was requested to stand opposite the president so Mr. Milburn could stand to the left and introduce people who approached. In that way I was unable to get a good look at every one's right hand. A few moments before Czolgosze approached a man came along with three fingers of the right hand tied up in a bandage and he had shaken hands with his left."

"When Czolgosze came up I noticed he was a boyish looking fellow, with an innocent face, perfectly calm, and I also noticed his right hand was wrapped in what appeared to be a bandage. I watched him closely but was interrupted by a man in front of him who held on to the president's hand an unusually long time. This man appeared to be an Italian and wore a short, heavy, black mustache. He was persistent and it was necessary for me to push him along so others could reach the president. Just as he released the president's hand and the president was reaching for the hand of the assassin there were two quick shots. Startled for a moment I looked and saw the president draw his right hand up under his coat, straighten up and pressing his lips together gave Czolgosze the most contemptible look possible to imagine."

"At the same time I reached for the young man and caught his left arm. A big negro standing just back of him and who would be the next to take the president's hand, struck the young man in the neck with one hand and with the other reached for the revolver, which had been discharged through the handkerchief and the shots had set fire to the linen. Immediately a dozen men fell upon the assassin and bore him to the floor. While on the floor Czolgosze again tried to discharge the revolver, but before he could point it at the president it was knocked from his hand by the negro. It flew across the floor and one of the artillerymen picked it up and put it in his pocket."

CONFESSES HIS CRIME.

Czolgosze Says He is an Anarchist and Has No Confederates.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Leon Czolgosze the self-confessed assassin, has signed a confession covering six pages of foolscap which states that he is an anarchist and that he became an enthusiastic member of that body through the influence of Emma Goldman, whose writings he had read and whose lectures he had listened to. He denies having any confederate and says that he decided on the assassination of the president three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He has seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland, and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Hosmer street and Ackland avenue. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades.

Czolgosze does not appear in the least degree uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his attention to Emma Goldman's lectures and writings to decide that the present form of government in this country was all wrong and he thought the best way to end it was by killing the president. He shows no signs of insanity, but is very reticent about much of his career. While acknowledging himself an anarchist, he does not state to what branch of the organization he belongs.

ARRESTS AT CHICAGO.

Six Men Arrested Charged With Being in a Plot.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Six men were put under arrest in this city Friday night on the charge of being implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley, the men were all found in the house at the corner of St. Johns place and Carroll avenue on the east side of the city. The arrests were made on information of the police of Buffalo who said that the men were members of a society to which the assailant of the president belonged and that they had knowledge of the plot.

The police have not given out the names of the men taken into custody, but one of the men is known to be Abraham Izzek, president of an organization which bears the name of the Free Society. He was formerly editor of a paper of anarchistic principle which bore the name of the Fire Brand.

The information received by the local police from Buffalo is to the effect that the plot to kill the president was originated among the members of the Free Society and that the Buffalo prisoner was chosen by lot to commit the crime.

ASSASSINATION FORETOLD.

Cornet Player Six Months Ago Said the President Was Doomed.

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 7.—Fritz Huttman, a reporter for The Eagle in this city, while singing with the Andrews Opera company last March says he was confidentially told by Antonio Maggio, cornet player with the same company, that President McKinley would be assassinated before October. Maggio intimated that orders to that effect had been received from an anarchist society in Italy.

Hattman was a tenor singer with the Andrews Opera company and is a son of the late Colonel Huttman, internal revenue collector under President Cleveland. In his statement last night he said:

"While traveling in February or March between Abilene, Tex., and El Paso, Tex., Antonio Maggio, a cornet player for the company, told me that he had belonged to an anarchist circle with headquarters in Rome, Italy. He told me that President McKinley and that Emperor William were doomed to assassination and that men had already been selected to kill them."

"The time is not yet for the assassination of the emperor, he said, but President McKinley will be killed before Oct. 1."

"Why?" I asked. "Because he sent soldiers to the Philippines, as King Humbert sent soldiers to kill the natives of South Africa. All who seek to oppress must die." "I thought he was merely jesting at the time, but now I believe he was not. He told me the society has assassins in the household of the emperor of Germany. Maggio also told me that he expected some day to be called on to kill a tyrant, and that when he is it will be the proudest moment of his life."

ANARCHISTS PLEASED.

They Toast the Would-Be Assassin With Beer at Paterson.

New York, Sept. 7.—As a whole the anarchist group of Paterson, N. J., express no regret at the shooting of President McKinley. On the contrary, there was a gathering of the members at Bartholdi Hall in that city and Neiman, who shot the president, was toasted in beer time and time again.

All the talkative members of the group say Czolgosze is unknown to them. One of them said:

"We don't know him, but he is one of us. He did what it was his duty to do and we honor him, while personally thinking his effort might better have been employed across the ocean upon some crowned head."

SUNDAY, SEPT. 8, 1901.

Colorado county has raised a remarkably fine rice crop.

Col. N. H. Tracy of Rockdale
has announced his intention of entering the race for congress from
this district at the proper time.

Texas and the Indian Territory
produced last year 3,808,568 bales
of cotton, or nearly 37 per cent of the entire crop of the United States.

The management of the Southern Pacific railroad announces that all locomotives on that line will be equipped for burning oil instead of coal as rapidly as possible.

The strike situation shows no improvement, but the mill magnates will probably whip the strikers into line again before their votes
are needed in another election to perpetuate the sort of thing they
are struggling against.

The United States Department
of Agriculture has arranged for a complete survey of the rice belt of Louisiana and Texas, the work to begin in Calcasieu parish, Louisiana, and extend west and east as
far as necessary and regardless of State lines.

McKinley would never have known how much the American people think of their chief executive had it not been for the attempt on his life. The universal sympathy for him and the unmeasured
condemnation for his assailant
evidence a high standard of patriotism throughout the nation.

The indiscriminate use of dodgers throughout the residence section of the city is causing housekeepers considerable annoyance.
The merchants who advertise by
the use of such dodgers, employ irresponsible parties to distribute
them and said individuals, instead

of throwing one in each residence throw as many as fifteen and twenty, in order to lighten their labors. The result is that the dodger is blown all over the garden
and the house-keeper has the
trouble each day of gathering them together. This dishonest practice on the part of the distributor is an imposition on the merchant and
he should look to it in the future
that his advertising matter be distributed with more discretion.—

Speeches were made and committees appointed, at a meeting last

augurated to enlist a larger attendance at a meeting to be held Saturday, September 7th, when regularly organized work will be commenced. Acreage, freight rates, and truck farming methods generally will then and thereafter be fully discussed. The uplands of Brazos county are better adapted to fruit and vegetables than any other class of farm products.—Farm

tion bill before the legislature it is believed it will complete its labors in two weeks. So far the item of $31,000 for a chemical and veterinary laboratory at College
has not been cut out and it is hoped it will not be. The pressing need for this addition to the College has come to be pretty well understood.

SORROW IN ENGLAND.

Britishers Deplore the Deed and Extend
Much Sympathy.

London, Sept. 7.—The United States
embassy has received many telegrams
and telephone messages from distinguished persons inquiring for news and
expressing anxiety and regret at the attempt of the would-be assassin.

Lord Pauncefoot, the British ambassador to the United States, accompanied by his daughter, was one of the earliest callers at the United States embassy.
He expressed the greatest sympathy and anxiety regarding President McKinley's condition. Other callers at the embassy included practically all the leading Americans in London. Telegrams of sympathy and inquiry were received at the embassy from all parts of Great Britain, including messages from the mayors of Liverpool, Birmingham and Portsmouth.

"England prays for McKinley," is printed in great, black type across the front page of the Evening Star and all journals express the hope of foreign
people that the president will recover.
The Evening News says "that he may be spared is the prayer of every Englishman throughout the empire," and the paper mentions the curious resemblance
in circumstances surrounding the crime
in Buffalo and those of the murder of President Carnot, whose assassin
climbed to his carriage for the ostensible purpose of shaking his hand.

The Echo eulogizes the personal traits of President McKinley as those on which Englishmen can dwell with unaffected admiration.

It is understood the American police are communicating with the police of various European capitals with a view of learning whether Leon Czolgosz has had relations with foreign anarchists
recently.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

President Shaffer Says the Strike Will Continue Despite Desertions.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—The Amalgamated executive board resumed its sessions
this morning with a full attendance of members. Previous to going into conference President Shaffer said
there would be no settlement today.

"The peace proposal that has been
made us," said he, "cannot be accepted,
and I wish to add that the terms of the terms of the proposition are different from those published. The strike will be continued. We have just begun to fight and while we expect some of our weak neighbors to go back to work, we have prepared ourselves for that."

Despite Friday's orders from the combine headquarters the fires were not lighted in any of the Pittsburg plants now idle, but it was stated that preparations are being made to resume operations at a number the middle of next week.

Cleveland Will Hunt Lions.

Colorado Springs, Sept. 7.—The annual lion hunt of the Dubuque Hunt association will be held Oct. 25 and 26, if these dates will suit ex-President Grover Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland will visit the Colorado hunting and fishing grounds about the middle of October until his close. He is anxious to see the famous game preserves in Mesa county, recently made prominent by the exploits
of the late Governor Tanner of Illinois, and others. A cowboy tournament and rough rider contest will also occur.
Changes in the dates may be made to suit Mr. Cleveland. The club has members in nearly every state.

Michigan Farmer Daped.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 7.—Frederick E.
Williams, giving his residence as Livingston county, Michigan, where he says
he owns a large farm, arrived here Friday, expecting to marry Miss Clara Nahlbach, a Chicago woman, who advertised that she had a large fortune to bestow on the man she would consent
to take as her husband. Miss Nahlbach prevailed upon Williams to send her $150 for the purchase of her wedding outfit, and this was the day appointed for the ceremony. Williams found on his arrival here that he had been duped.

Fought Like a Demon.

Sherman, Tex., Sept. 7.—Four officers
were compelled to use their pistols and clubs last night and hammer Dan Carson, a negro, into insensibility on Court plaza, and until he fell he brandished a vicious-looking carving knife. All the officers managed to evade the slashes he made except Deputy Sheriff Harve Taylor, who was slightly cut on the hand.
The negro had assaulted Jim Creed, a young white man, who was seriously hurt, and for this crime officers made
the arrest.

Trying to Outdo France.

it is said, is endeavoring to come to some direct understanding with the French claimants against the Ottoman government, hoping thus to deprive the French government of its grounds for action.

ASSASSIN ARRESTED AND IS IN PRISON.

From the Best Information It Seems to
Have Been a Plot of Anarchists.
A Mob Makes an Attempt
to Lynch the Assassin.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President McKinley
was shot and seriously wounded by a
would-be assassin while holding a reception in the Temple of Music at the Pan-American exposition a few minutes after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
One shot took effect in the right breast,
the other in the abdomen. The first is not of a serious nature and the bullet was extracted. The latter pierced the abdomen wall and has not been located.
It is the opinion the president will recover.

It was just after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon while President Mc-Kinley was holding a public reception in the great Temple of Music Hall on the Pan-American grounds that the cowardly attack was made with what success time alone can tell, though physicians have hope.

Standing in the midst of crowds numbering thousands, surrounded by every evidence of good will, pressed by a motley throng of people, showered with expressions of love and loyalty, besieged
by multitudes, all eager to clasp his hand—amid these surroundings and
with the ever-recurring plaudits of an army of sympathizers ringing in his ears, the blow of the assassin fell and
in an instant pleasure gave way to pain, admiration to agony, folly turned to
fury and pandemonium followed.

At police headquarters is a medium sized man of common place appearance
with his fixed gaze directed on the floor
who did the dastard deed.

It was just after the daily organ recital in the Temple of Music that the attempt was made. Planned with all

be assassin carried out the work without a hitch, and should his designs fail
and the president survive, only to Divine Providence can be attributed that beneficent result.

The president, though well guarded
by United States detectives, was fully exposed to such an attack as occurred.
The president stood at the edge of the
raised dais, upon which stands the great pipe organ. Throngs of people crowded in at the various entrances to gaze upon their chief executive, perchance to clasp his hand and then fight
their way out in the goodnatured mob.
The president was in a cheerful mood
and was enjoying fully the hearty evidences of good will which everywhere
met his gaze. Upon his right stood President Milburn of the exposition,
chatting with the president and introducing to him especially persons of note who approached. Upon the president's

It was shortly after 4 p. m. when one
of the throng which surrounded the presidential party, a medium-sized man
of ordinary appearance and plainly dressed in black, approached as if to greet the president. Both Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn noticed that the man's hand was swathed in a bandage or handkerchief. Reports of bystanders differ as to which hand. He worked his way amid the stream of people up to the edge of the dais until he was within two feet of the president.

President McKinley smiled, bowed
and extended his hand in a genial spirit

Mr. George Smith and Miss Nellie Smith entertained a few couples Thursday evening. Music and dancing were the features.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allphin entertained nine couples at an apron party at the home of Mrs. H. Kernole Tuesday evening. The prizes were awarded to Mr. Hugo Jahn and Mr. Fred Goodson. All present greatly enjoyed the pastime.

About thirty or forty lady friends met Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Adams and went in a body to the beautiful new home of Mrs. L. L. McInnis. It is needless to say the hostess was agreeably surprised, as all who know her also know that cordial hospitality is one of her characteristics, and that she enjoys nothing more than entertaining her friends. The new house, elaborate in plan and elegant in the details of finish, was greatly admired. Music and toasts to the different members of the family, with the passing of the loving cup, served to pass an exceedingly enjoyable time. Punch and Vienna wafers were served.

The club ladies of Bryan will be interested in the following announcement: Mrs. Luther W. Clark of the Quiero Club, Oak Cliff, is chairman of the art committee for the coming season. Mr. Clark requests that every club wishing to join the art circuit for 1901-1902 send in the dues not later than Oct. 1, addressing her at Oak Cliff, Texas. The dues will be the same as last year—10c per capita for all clubs numbering less than twenty-five members; for clubs of twenty-five or more a club assessment of $2.50. An effort will be made this year to cover comprehensively American art by means of prints, reproductions, photographs, etc. Besides there will be an interesting collection of pastels and drawings. The matter has already been placed in the hands of prominent art collectors in the North and East, and no pains will be spared to have the collection thoroughly representative. Descriptive matter with biographical sketches of the artists will accompany the pictures and from the arrangements already under way "the traveling gallery" promises again to be the feature of federation work—a feature which no club can afford to forego. In order that the express circuit may be made as economically as possible, it will be necessary for the clubs to signify their intention of joining and remit dues not later than October 1, as after the circuit has been arranged it cannot be changed.

when suddenly the sharp crack of a revolver rang loud and clear above the hum of voices. Then there was complete silence.

President McKinley stood stock still with a look of hesitancy, almost of bewilderment, on his face. Then he retreated a step while a palor began to steal over his features. The multitude, only partially aware that something serious had happened, paused in surprise while necks were craned and all eyes turned as one to the rostrum.

Then came a commotion. With the leap of a tiger three men threw themselves forward, as with one impulse and sprang toward the would be assassin. Two of them were United States secret service men who were on the outlook and whose duty it was to guard against just such a calamity as had here befallen the president and the nation. The third was a bystander, a negro, who had only an instant previously grasped the hand of the president. As one man the trio hurled themselves upon the president's assailant. In a twinkling he was borne to the ground, his weapon was wrested from his grasp and strong arms pinioned him down.

The multitude which thronged the edifice began to come to a realizing sense of the awfulness of the scene of which they had been unwilling witnesses. A murmur rose, spread and swelled to a hum of confusion, then grew to a babel of sounds and later to a pandemonium of noises.

The crowds that a moment before had stood mute and motionless as in bewildered ignorance of the enormity of the thing, now as with a single impulse surged forward, while a hoarse cry welled up from the thousand throats and a thousand men charged forward to lay hands upon the perpetrator of the crime.

For a moment the confusion was terrible. The crowd surged forward regardless of consequences. Some of those nearest the door fled from the edifice in fear of a stampede, while hundreds of others from the outside struggled blindly forward in the effort to penetrate the crowded building and solve the mystery.

President McKinley after the first shock of the assassin's shot retreated a step, walked steadily to a chair and seated himself, at the same time removing his hat and bowing his head in his hands. In an instant Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn were at his side. His waistcoat was hurriedly opened, the president meanwhile admonishing those about him to remain calm and telling them not to be alarmed.

"But you are wounded," said the secretary, "let me examine."

"No, I think not," answered the president. "I am not badly hurt, I assure you."

Nevertheless his outer garments were hastily loosened and when a trickling stream of crimson was seen to wind its way down his breast, spreading its stain over the white surface of the linen their worst fears were confirmed.

A force of exposition guards were on the scene by this time and an effort was made to clear the building.

Spectators crowded down the stairways from the galleries and the crowds on the floor surged forward toward the rostrum, while, despite the strenuous efforts of police and guards, the throng without struggled madly to obtain admission.

As soon as the crowd in the Temple of Music had been dispersed sufficiently the president was removed in an automobile ambulance to the exposition hospital where an examination was made by the best medical skill in Buffalo.

The president retained the full exercise of his faculties until placed on the operating table and subjected to an anesthetic. Upon the first examination it was ascertained that one bullet had taken effect in the right breast just below the nipple, causing a comparatively harmless wound. The other took effect in the abdomen, about four inches below the left nipple, four inches to the left of the navel and about on a level with it.

Upon arriving at the exposition hospital, second bullet was probed for. The walls of the abdomen was opened but the ball was not located. The incision was hastily closed and after a hasty consultation it was decided to remove the patient to the home of President Milburn. This was done. At the Milburn residence, the task of probing for the bullet which had lodged in the abdomen was begun by Dr. Rosewell Parke, but the bullet was not located.

When it was decided to remove the president from the exposition hospital to the Milburn residence, the news was broken to Mrs. McKinley as gently as possible. She bore the shock remarkably well and displayed the utmost fortitude.

At the Milburn house were Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, President Milburn, Director General Buchanan of the exposition, Dr. Rixey and Secretary Cortelyou and the best medical skill of Buffalo.

Telegrams poured in by the hundreds and Secretary Cortelyou was kept busy replying to them. Two stenographers with their typewriters were placed in the parlor, which was quickly transformed into a bustling room.

While the wounded president was being borne from the exposition to the Milburn residence between rows of on-lookers with bared heads a far different spectacle was being witnessed along the route of his assailant's journey from the scene of his crime to police headquarters. The trip was made so quickly that the prisoner was landed safely before his presence was noticed.

As soon as it was known the assailant had been taken to police quarters the crowd surged that way and soon 50,000 people were in that vicinity. The cry of "Lynch him!" was yelled by some one and then taken up by the multitude and had it not been for the prompt measures taken by the police the cry would have been carried out.

The prisoner at first was sullen. Then he gave the name of Fred Neiman, and finally owned his real name was Leon Czolgosz; that he was born at Detroit and that his home now was at Cleveland.

The would-be assassin is a Pole, 28 years of age, stands 5 feet 9 inches high, weighs 160 pounds, has dark brown hair, blue eyes, smooth face, regular features and a prominent nose. He speaks very good English.

PRESIDENT'S CONDITION.

The Only Fear of Physicians Now Is Septic Poisoning.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President McKinley maintains a good measure of his strength and those who watch at his bedside hold higher hopes for his ultimate recovery. The shock from the wounds inflicted upon him by Leon B. Czolgosz seems to have been less than anticipated and that is regarded as highly favorable to him. It is admitted the crisis in his condition has yet to come, and that there is the gravest danger until this has been safely passed. Several bulletins came from the chamber of the president during Friday night and the early hours this morning and they all indicated a spirit of hopefulness. The president rested well Friday night there was no alarming conditions of temperature or pulse and the spirits of the sufferer was strong and cheery.

Mrs. McKinley bears up bravely in her sorrow and the physicians in attendance feel but little concern on her account.

The fear of the president's physicians is that septic poisoning will set in and it is for the first symptoms of this they are watching.

The bullet is lodged in the muscles of the back and physicians have decided for the present it is of secondary importance. The bullet took a downward course, but neither the intestines nor kidneys were injured. Of this the physicians are confident.

If inflammation should appear in the neighborhood of the place where the bullet is believed to be lodged, Roetgen rays will be used to locate the bullet and doctors do not think there will be any difficulty in extracting it. The rapidity of the patient's pulse does not unduly alarm the physicians. Dr. Rixey says the president has always had somewhat of an erratic pulse and its sudden rise was an unexpected. The president is conscious and calm and collected, although still somewhat drowsy from the effects of ether administered to him.

The following bulletin was issued by the president's physicians at 12 o'clock noon:

"There is no decided change in the president's condition since last bulletin. Pulse, 136, temperature, 102; respiration, 28."

The operation on the president Friday lasted an hour. A 5-inch incision was made, the course of the bullet followed until the physicians were satisfied the kidneys and intestines were uninjured, the latter was lifted out and examined.

Roosevelt Reaches Buffalo.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Vice President Roosevelt arrived here at noon and went quickly to the Milburn home.

No member of the cabinet has been allowed to see the president. As soon as all the cabinet officers arrive a meeting will be called.

Claims He Sent a Warning.

New York, Sept. 7.—Gustave Meyer, who says he is an astrologer, living in Hoboken, claims to have sent the following telegram to President McKinley when the latter was in San Francisco:

"Your wife will live another year—until about February or March—but be careful of yourself. You will be shot or stabbed during the month of June or else in September"

Czolgosz Photographed.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—The prisoner Czolgosz has been photographed and copies of pictures are being made as rapidly as possible and distributed broadcast.

Prayed for the President.

London, Sept. 7.—The ecumenical Methodist conference gave up its first hour of its session today to prayers for eulogies and resolutions respecting President McKinley.

Fatal Family Feud.

Coffeyville, Kan., Sept. 7.—Albert Morris and John Nelson, both prominent citizens of the Indian Territory, engaged in a desperate fight here Morris using a knife and Nelson a 38-caliber revolver. Morris was shot through the body and died in 30 minutes. Nelson was only slightly injured. They were brothers-in-law, and the killing is the result of a bitter feeling that has existed for several years.

FRANKLIN BROTHERS

ASSASSIN LAID HIS PLANS WELL.

Believed the Man Preceding Him an Accomplice.

ANOTHER ARREST WILL FOLLOW.

Czolgosz Declares He Had No Confederates in the Crime.

THE SHOOTING AS SEEN BY A DETECTIVE

He Says the Man who Shielded the Assassin from His View—Vice President Roosevelt Is Closely Guarded.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Although Czolgosz refused to incriminate any one else in the plot to kill President McKinley, the police are of the opinion that another man is party to it. The man is the one who walked directly in front of Czolgosz and shielded him from the sight of the secret service men. The police have a good description of him and his arrest may occur at any moment. There is no doubt, according to the police, this man was an accomplice of Czolgosz. Czolgosz does not appear to be insane.

Detective Sergeant John Geary, who stood a few feet from Czolgosz when he fired the shots and who caught President McKinley when he fell, was asked whether, in his opinion, Czolgosz was insane. "He may be," said the detective, "but from all I saw of him he is just an anarchist."

Czolgosz is not above the average height. His face is that of the typical German. He appears to be very nervous and starts suddenly when any one speaks to him. He proved to be very elusive in answering questions, however. The police worked over him until a late hour Friday night and they admitted very little progress had been made in bringing facts from him regarding his past history. He shows no sign of remorse, though is to a degree nervous.

STORY OF A DETECTIVE.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Secret Service Detective Ireland said: "It had been my custom to stand back of the president and just to his left so I could see the right hand of every person approaching, but yesterday I was requested to stand opposite the president so Mr. Milburn could stand to the left and introduce people who approached. In that way I was unable to get a good look at every one's right hand. A few moments before Czolgosz approached a man came along with three fingers of the right hand tied up in a bandage and he had shaken hands with his left."

"When Czolgosz came up I noticed he was a boyish looking fellow, with an innocent face, perfectly calm, and I also noticed his right hand was wrapped in what appeared to be a bandage. I watched him closely but was interrupted by a man in front of him who held on to the president's hand an unusually long time. This man appeared to be an Italian and wore a short, heavy, black mustache. He was persistent and it was necessary for me to push him along so others could reach the president. Just as he released the president's hand and the president was reaching for the hand of the assassin there were two quick shots. Startled for a moment I looked and saw the president draw his right hand up under his coat, straighten up and pressing his lips together gave Czolgosz the most contemptible look possible to imagine."

"At the same time I reached for the young man and caught his left arm. A big negro standing just back of him and who would be the next to take the president's hand, struck the young man in the neck with one hand and with the other reached for the revolver, which had been discharged through the handkerchief and the shots had set fire to the linen. Immediately a dozen men fell upon the assassin and bore him to the floor. While on the floor Czolgosz again tried to discharge the revolver, but before he could point it at the president it was knocked from his hand by the negro. It flew across the floor and one of the artillerymen picked it up and put it in his pocket."

CONFESSES HIS CRIME.

Czolgosz Says He Is an Anarchist and Has No Confederates.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Leon Czolgosz the self-confessed assassin, has signed a confession covering six pages of foolscap which states that he is an anarchist and that he became an enthusiastic member of that body through the influence of Emma Goldman, whose writings he had read and whose lectures he had listened to. He denies having any confederate and says that he decided on the assassination of the president three days ago and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He has seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland, and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Hosmer street and Oakland avenue. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades.

ARRESTS AT CHICAGO.

Six Men Arrested Charged With Being in a Plot.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Six men were put under arrest in this city Friday night on the charge of being implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley. The men were all found in the house at the corner of St. Johns place and Carroll avenue on the east side of the city. The arrests were made on information of the police of Buffalo who said that the men were members of a society to which the assailant of the president belonged and that they had knowledge of the plot.

The police have not given out the names of the men taken into custody, but one of the men is known to be Abraham Izeck, president of an organization which bears the name of the Free Society. He was formerly editor of a paper of anarchistic principle which bore the name of the Fire Brand.

The information received by the local police from Buffalo is to the effect that the plot to kill the president was originated among the members of the Free Society and that the Buffalo prisoner was chosen by lot to commit the crime.

ASSASSINATION FORETOLD.

Cornet Player Six Months Ago Said the President Was Doomed.

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 7.—Fritz Huttman, a reporter for The Eagle in this city, while singing with the Andrews Opera company last March says he was confidentially told by Antonio Maggio, cornet player with the same company, that President McKinley would be assassinated before October. Maggio intimated that orders to that effect had been received from an anarchist society in Italy.

Huttman was a tenor singer with the Andrews Opera company and is a son of the late Colonel Huttman, internal revenue collector under President Cleveland. In his statement last night he said:

"While traveling in February on March between Abilene, Tex., and El Paso, Tex., Antonio Maggio, a cornet player for the company, told me that he had belonged to an anarchist circle with headquarters in Rome, Italy. He told me that President McKinley and that Emperor William were doomed to assassination and that men had already been selected to kill them."

"The time is not yet for the assassination of the emperor, he said, but President McKinley will be killed before Oct. 1."

"Why?" I asked. "Because he sent soldiers to the Philippines, as King Humbert sent soldiers to kill the natives of South Africa. All who seek to oppress must die." "I thought he was merely jesting at the time, but now I believe he was not. He told me the society has assassins in the household of the emperor of Germany. Maggio also told me that he expected some day to be called on to kill a 'viant, and that when he is it will be the proudest moment of his life."

ANARCHISTS PLEASED.

They Toast the Would-Be Assassin With Beer at Paterson.

New York, Sept. 7.—As a whole the anarchist group of Paterson, N. J., express no regret at the shooting of President McKinley. On the contrary, there was a gathering of the members at Bartholdi Hall in that city and Neiman, who shot the president, was toasted in beer time and time again.

All the talkative members of the group say Czolgosz is unknown to them. One of them said:

"We don't know him, but he is one of us. He did what it was his duty to do and we honor him, while personally thinking his effort might better have been employed across the ocean upon some crowned head."

SUNDAY, SEPT. 8, 1901.

Colorado county has raised a
remarkably fine rice crop.

Col. N. H. Tracy of Rockdale
has announced his intention of
entering the race for congress from
this district at the proper time.

Texas and the Indian Territory
produced last year 3,808,568 bales
of cotton, or nearly 37 per cent of the entire crop of the United States.

The management of the Southern Pacific railroad announces that all
locomotives on that line will be
equipped for burning oil instead of
coal as rapidly as possible.

The strike situation shows no
improvement, but the mill mag-
nates will probably whip the strikers into line again before their votes
are needed in another election to
perpetuate the sort of thing they
are struggling against.

The United States Department
of Agriculture has arranged for a complete survey of the rice belt of Louisiana and Texas, the work to
begin in Calcasieu parish, Louisiana, and extend west and east as
far as necessary and regardless of State lines.

McKinley would never have
known how much the American
people think of their chief executive had it not been for the attempt
on his life. The universal sympathy for him and the unmeasured
condemnation for his assailant
evidence a high standard of patriotism throughout the nation.

The indiscriminate use of dodgers throughout the residence section of the city is causing house-
keepers considerable annoyance.
The merchants who advertise by
the use of such dodgers, employ
irresponsible parties to distribute
them and said individuals, instead

of throwing one in each residence
throw as many as fifteen and
twenty, in order to lighten their
labors. The result is that the
dodger is blown all over the garden
and the house-keeper has the
trouble each day of gathering them
together. This dishonest practice
on the part of the distributor is an
imposition on the merchant and
he should look to it in the future
that his advertising matter be distributed with more discretion.— Orange Leader. Better put it in a newspaper and then it will be more welcome.

Brazos county now has a live Truck Growers' Association.
Speeches were made and committees appointed, at a meeting last week, and a regular campaign inaugurated to enlist a larger attendance at a meeting to be held Saturday, September 7th, when regularly organized work will be commenced. Acreage, freight rates,
and truck farming methods generally will then and thereafter be
fully discussed. The uplands of Brazos county are better adapted
to fruit and vegetables than any other class of farm products.—Farm and Ranch.

With nothing but the appropriation bill before the legislature it
is believed it will complete its labors in two weeks. So far the
item of $31,000 for a chemical and
veterinary laboratory at College
has not been cut out and it is hoped it will not be. The pressing need for this addition to the College has come to be pretty well understood.

SORROW IN ENGLAND.

Britishers Deplore the Deed and Extend
Much Sympathy.

London, Sept. 7.—The United States
embassy has received many telegrams
and telephone messages from distinguished persons inquiring for news and
expressing anxiety and regret at the attempt of the would-be assassin.

Lord Pauncefoot, the British ambassador to the United States, accompanied
by his daughter, was one of the earliest
callers at the United States embassy.
He expressed the greatest sympathy and
anxiety regarding President McKinley's
condition. Other callers at the embassy
included practically all the leading Americans in London. Telegrams of sympathy and inquiry were received at
the embassy from all parts of Great Britain, including messages from the mayors of Liverpool, Birmingham and Plymouth.

"England prays for McKinley," is
printed in great, black type across the
front page of the Evening Star and all
journals express the hope of foreign
people that the president will recover.
The Evening News says "that he may
be spared is the prayer of every English-
man throughout the empire," and the
paper mentions the curious resemblance
in circumstances surrounding the crime
in Buffalo and those of the murder of President Carnot, whose assassin
climbed to his carriage for the ostensi-
ble purpose of shaking his hand.

The Echo eulogizes the personal traits
of President McKinley as those on
which Englishmen can dwell with unaffected admiration.

It is understood the American police
are communicating with the police of
various European capitals with a view of learning whether Leon Czolgosze has had relations with foreign anarchists
recently.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

President Shaffer Says the Strike Will Continue Despite Desertions.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—The Amalgamated
executive board resumed its sessions
this morning with a full attendance of members. Previous to going
into conference President Shaffer said
there would be no settlement today.

"The peace proposal that has been
made us," said he, "cannot be accepted,
and I wish to add that the terms of the terms of the proposition are different
from those published. The strike will be continued. We have just begun to fight and while we expect some of our
weak neighbors to go back to work, we
have prepared ourselves for that."

Despite Friday's orders from the combine headquarters the fires were
not lighted in any of the Pittsburg
plants now idle, but it was stated that
preparations are being made to resume
operations at a number the middle of
next week.

Cleveland Will Hunt Lions.

Colorado Springs, Sept. 7.—The annual lion hunt of the Dubuque Hunt association will be held Oct. 25 and 26, if
these dates will suit ex-President Grover Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland will visit the Colorado hunting and fishing grounds about the middle of October until it close. He is anxious to see the famous
game preserves in Mesa county, recently made prominent by the exploits
of the late Governor Tanner of Illinois,
and others. A cowboy tournament and
rough rider contest will also occur.
Changes in the dates may be made to
suit Mr. Cleveland. The club has members in nearly every state.

Michigan Farmer Daped.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 7.—Frederick E.
Williams, giving his residence as Livingston county, Michigan, where he says
he owns a large farm, arrived here Friday, expecting to marry Miss Clara Nahlbach, a Chicago woman, who advertised that she had a large fortune to
bestow on the man she would consent
to take as her husband. Miss Nahlbach
prevailed upon Williams to send her $150 for the purchase of her wedding
outfit, and this was the day appointed
for the ceremony. Williams found on
his arrival here that he had been duped.

Fought Like a Demon.

Sherman, Tex., Sept. 7.—Four officers
were compelled to use their pistols and
clubs last night and hammer Dan Car-
son, a negro, into insensibility on Court
plaza, and until he fell he brandished a vicious-looking carving knife. All the officers managed to evade the slashes he made except Deputy Sheriff Harvey Taylor, who was slightly cut on the hand.
The negro had assaulted Jim Creed, a
young white man, who was seriously
hurt, and for this crime officers made
the arrest.

Trying to Outdo France.

Constantinople, Sept. 7.—The porte,
it is said, is endeavoring to come to
some direct understanding with the French claimants against the Ottoman
government, hoping thus to deprive the French government of its grounds for
action.

From the Best Information It Seems to
Have Been a Plot of Anarchists.
A Mob Makes an Attempt
to Lynch the Assassin.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President McKinley
was shot and seriously wounded by a
would-be assassin while holding a reception in the Temple of Music at the Pan-American exposition a few minutes
after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
One shot took effect in the right breast,
the other in the abdomen. The first is
not of a serious nature and the bullet
was extracted. The latter pierced the
abdomen wall and has not been located.
It is the opinion the president will recover.

It was just after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon while President McKinley was holding a public reception in the great Temple of Music Hall on the Pan-American grounds that the
cowardly attack was made with what
success time alone can tell, though physicians have hope.

Standing in the midst of crowds numbering thousands, surrounded by every evidence of good will, pressed by a mole throng of people, showered with expressions of love and loyalty, besieged
by multitudes, all eager to clasp his
hand—amid these surroundings and
with the ever-recurring plaudits of an
army of sympathizers ringing in his
ears, the blow of the assassin fell and
in an instant pleasure gave way to pain,
admiration to agony, folly turned to
fury and pandemonium followed.

At police headquarters is a medium
sized man of common place appearance
with his fixed gaze directed on the floor
who did the dastard deed.

It was just after the daily organ recital in the Temple of Music that the
attempt was made. Planned with all

be assassin carried out the work with-
out a hitch, and should his designs fail
and the president survive, only to Divine Providence can be attributed that
beneficent result.

The president, though well guarded
by United States detectives, was fully
exposed to such an attack as occurred.
The president stood at the edge of the
raised dais, upon which stands the
great pipe organ. Throngs of people crowded in at the various entrances to
gaze upon their chief executive, per-
chance to clasp his hand and then fight
their way out in the goodnatured mob.
The president was in a cheerful mood
and was enjoying fully the hearty evidences of good will which everywhere
met his gaze. Upon his right stood President Milburn of the exposition,
chatting with the president and introducing to him especially persons of note

It was shortly after 4 p. m. when one
of the throng which surrounded the
presidential party, a medium-sized man
of ordinary appearance and plainly
dressed in black, approached as if to greet the president. Both Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn noticed
that the man's hand was swathed in a bandage or handkerchief. Reports of bystanders differ as to which hand. He worked his way amid the stream of people up to the edge of the dais until he
was within two feet of the president.
President McKinley smiled, bowed
and extended his hand in a genial spirit

A column devoted to society events of the week will appear in each Sunday's Morning Eagle. Notes and all reports of society events are requested. No manuscripts are solicited for publication verbatim, however, but it is requested that matter be submitted, to be worked up by the society editor.

Mr. George Smith and Miss Nellie Smith entertained a few couples Thursday evening. Music and dancing were the features.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allphin entertained nine couples at an apron party at the home of Mrs. H. Kernole Tuesday evening. The prizes were awarded to Mr. Hugo Jahn and Mr. Fred Goodson. All present greatly enjoyed the pastime.

About thirty or forty lady friends met Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Adams and went in a body to the beautiful new home of Mrs. L. L. McInnis. It is needless to say the hostess was agreeably surprised, as all who know her also know that cordial hospitality is one of her characteristics, and that she enjoys nothing more than entertaining her friends. The new house, elaborate in plan and elegant in the details of finish, was greatly admired. Music and toasts to the different members of the family, with the passing of the loving cup, served to pass an exceedingly enjoyable time. Punch and Vienna wafers were served.

The clubladies of Bryan will be interested in the following announcement: Mrs. Luther W. Clark of the Quiero Club, Oak Cliff, is chairman of the art committee for the coming season. Mr. Clark requests that every club wishing to join the art circuit for 1901-1902 send in the dues not later than Oct. 1, addressing her at Oak Cliff, Texas. The dues will be the same as last year—10c per capita for all clubs numbering less than twenty-five members; for clubs of twenty-five or more a club assessment of $2.50. An effort will be made this year to cover comprehensively American art by means of prints, reproductions, photographs, etc. Besides there will be an interesting collection of pastels and drawings. The matter has already been placed in the hands of prominent art collectors in the North and East, and no pains will be spared to have the collection thoroughly representative. Descriptive matter with biographical sketches of the artists will accompany the pictures and from the arrangements already under way "the traveling gallery" promises again to be the feature of federation work—a feature which no club can afford to forego. In order that the express circuit may be made as economically as possible, it will be necessary for the clubs to signify their intention of joining and remit does not later than October 1, as after the circuit has been arranged it cannot be changed.

President McKinley stood stock still with a look of hesitancy, almost of bewilderment, on his face. Then he retreated a step while a palor began to steal over his features. The multitude, only partially aware that something serious had happened, paused in surprise while necks were craned and all eyes turned as one to the rostrum.

Then came a commotion. With the leap of a tiger three men threw themselves forward, as with one impulse and sprang toward the would be assassin. Two of them were United States secret service men who were on the outlook and whose duty it was to guard against just such a calamity as had here befallen the president and the nation. The third was a bystander, a negro, who had only an instant previously grasped the hand of the president. As one man the trio hurled themselves upon the president's assailant. In a twinkling he was borne to the ground, his weapon was wrested from his grasp and strong arms pinioned him down.

The multitude which thronged the edifice began to come to a realizing sense of the awfulness of the scene of which they had been unwilling witnesses. A murmur rose, spread and swelled to a hum of confusion, then grew to a

The crowds that a moment before had stood mute and motionless as in bewildered ignorance of the enormity of the thing, now as with a single impulse surged forward, while a hoarse cry welled up from the thousand throats and a thousand men charged forward to lay hands upon the perpetrator of the crime.

For a moment the confusion was terrible. The crowd surged forward regardless of consequences. Some of those nearest the door fled from the edifice in fear of a stampede, while hundreds of others from the outside struggled blindly forward in the effort to penetrate the crowded building and solve the mystery.

President McKinley after the first shock of the assassin's shot retreated a step, walked steadily to a chair and seated himself, at the same time removing his hat and bowing his head in his hands. In an instant Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn were at his side. His waistcoat was hurriedly opened, the president meanwhile admonishing those about him to remain calm and telling them not to be alarmed.

"But you are wounded," said the secretary, "let me examine."

"No, I think not," answered the president. "I am not badly hurt, I assure you."

Nevertheless his outer garments were hastily loosened and when a trickling stream of crimson was seen to wind its way down his breast, spreading its stain over the white surface of the linen their worst fears were confirmed.

A force of exposition guards were on the scene by this time and an effort was made to clear the building.

Spectators crowded down the stairways from the galleries and the crowds on the floor surged forward toward the rostrum, while, despite the strenuous efforts of police and guards, the throng without struggled madly to obtain admission.

As soon as the crowd in the Temple of Music had been dispersed sufficiently the president was removed in an automobile ambulance to the exposition hospital where an examination was made by the best medical skill in Buffalo.

The president retained the full exercise of his faculties until placed on the operating table and subjected to an anesthetic. Upon the first examination it was ascertained that one bullet had taken effect in the right breast just below the nipple, causing a comparatively harmless wound. The other took effect in the abdomen, about four inches below the left nipple, four inches to the left of the navel and about on a level with it.

Upon arriving at the exposition hospital, second bullet was probed for. The walls of the abdomen were opened but the ball was not located. The incision was hastily closed and after a hasty consultation it was decided to remove the patient to the home of President Milburn. This was done. At the Milburn residence, the task of probing for the bullet which had lodged in the abdomen was begun by Dr. Rosewell Parke, but the bullet was not located.

When it was decided to remove the president from the exposition hospital to the Milburn residence, the news was broken to Mrs. McKinley as gently as possible. She bore the shock remarkably well and displayed the utmost fortitude.

At the Milburn house were Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, President Milburn, Director General Buchanan of the exposition, Dr. Rixey and Secretary Cor-

telyou and the best medical skill of Buffalo.

Telegrams poured in by the hundreds and Secretary Cortelyou was kept busy replying to them. Two stenographers with their typewriters were placed in the parlor, which was quickly transformed into a bustling room.

While the wounded president was being borne from the exposition to the Milburn residence between rows of on-lookers with bared heads a far different spectacle was being witnessed along the route of his assailant's journey from the scene of his crime to police headquarters. The trip was made so quickly that the prisoner was landed safely before his presence was noticed.

As soon as it was known the assailant had been taken to police quarters the crowd surged that way and soon 50,000 people were in that vicinity. The cry of "Lynch him!" was yelled by some one and then taken up by the multitude and had it not been for the prompt measures taken by the police the cry would have been carried out.

The prisoner at first was sullen. Then he gave the name of Fred Neiman, and finally owned his real name was Leon Czolgosz; that he was born at Detroit and that his home now was at Cleveland.

The would-be assassin is a Pole, 28 years of age, stands 5 feet 9 inches high, weighs 160 pounds, has dark brown hair, blue eyes, smooth face, regular features and a prominent nose. He speaks very good English.

PRESIDENT'S CONDITION.

The Only Fear of Physicians Now Is Septic Poisoning.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President McKinley maintains a good measure of his strength and those who watch at his bedside hold higher hopes for his ultimate recovery. The shock from the wounds inflicted upon him by Leon B. Czolgosz seems to have been less than anticipated and that is regarded as highly favorable to him. It is admitted the crisis in his condition has yet to come, and that there is the gravest danger until this has been safely passed. Several bulletins came from the chamber of the president during Friday night and the early hours this morning and they all indicated a spirit of hopefulness. The president rested well Friday night there was no alarming conditions of temperature or pulse and the spirits of the sufferer was strong and cheery.

Mrs. McKinley bears up bravely in her sorrow and the physicians in attendance feel but little concern on her account.

The fear of the president's physicians is that septic poisoning will set in and it is for the first symptoms of this they are watching.

The bullet is lodged in the muscles of the back and physicians have decided for the present it is of secondary importance. The bullet took a downward course, but neither the intestines nor kidneys were injured. Of this the physicians are confident.

If inflammation should appear in the neighborhood of the place where the bullet is believed to be lodged, Roentgen rays will be used to locate the bullet and doctors do not think there will be any difficulty in extracting it. The rapidity of the patient's pulse does not unduly alarm the physicians. Dr. Rixey says the president has always had somewhat of an erratic pulse and its sudden rise was an unexpected. The president is conscious and calm and collected, although still somewhat drowsy from the effects of ether administered to him.

The following bulletin was issued by the president's physicians at 12 o'clock noon:

"There is no decided change in the president's condition since last bulletin. Pulse, 136, temperature, 102; respiration, 28."

The operation on the president Friday lasted an hour. A 5-inch incision was made, the course of the bullet followed until the physicians were satisfied the kidneys and intestines were uninjured, the latter was lifted out and examined.

Roosevelt Reaches Buffalo.

Buffalo, Sept. 7. — Vice President Roosevelt arrived here at noon and went quickly to the Milburn home.

No member of the cabinet has been allowed to see the president. As soon as all the cabinet officers arrive a meeting will be called.

Claims He Sent a Warning.

New York, Sept. 7.—Gustave Meyer, who says he is an astrologer, living in Hoboken, claims to have sent the following telegram to President McKinley when the latter was in San Francisco:

"Your wife will live another year—until about February or March—but be careful of yourself. You will be shot or stabbed during the month of June or else in September"

Czolgosz Photographed.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—The prisoner Czolgosz has been photographed and copies of pictures are being made as rapidly as possible and distributed broadcast.

Prayed for the President.

London, Sept. 7.—The ecumenical Methodist conference gave up its first hour of its session today to prayers for eulogies and resolutions respecting President McKinley.

Fatal Family Feud.

Coffeeville, Kan., Sept. 7.—Albert Morris and John Nelson, both prominent citizens of the Indian Territory, engaged in a desperate fight here Morris using a knife and Nelson a 38-caliber revolver. Morris was shot through the body and died in 30 minutes. Nelson was only slightly injured. They were brothers-in-law, and the killing is the result of a bitter feeling that has existed for several years.

Special satisfaction is expressed by the ladies in the commodious dressing rooms found in our Pullmans, and all our guests appreciate the freedom from carving, superfluous decorations and stuffy plushes, which is a distinctive and welcome feature of the most up-to-date Pullman Sleepers—the kind we have two of each day, run through without change. Our Day Coaches are also of the latest design, elegant in their dignified simplicity, with very comfortable high-back seats, the equal of any similar equipment. No other line operates Cafe Cars from Texas, and no other line runs through trains to Colorado (and our time is far and away the shortest, too); no other line has Observation Sleepers to the Northwest, no other line makes a specialty of Colorado Tourist travel.
